

Code of Conduct for Teaching Professionals

1. Introduction

This Code of Conduct sets the standards of professional behaviour expected of all registered teaching professionals in Botswana.

2. Professional Behaviour

Teachers must act with integrity, fairness and respect towards learners, colleagues, parents, and the community.

3. Safeguarding Learners

Educators must prioritise the welfare of learners and report any concerns about abuse or exploitation.

4. Commitment to Professional Development

All teachers are expected to participate in continuous professional development to maintain high standards.

5. Breach of Conduct

Violations of this Code may result in disciplinary action, including suspension or removal from the teacher registry.